DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-6, 10-11, 14, 15, 35-38 and 39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Garcia et al. (5,701,680).

Garcia et al. discloses the invention including:

- Claim 1; a scribe member 124, a tile engagement member 36, an extension member 122 and locking member 138.
- Claims 2, 3, 36 and 37; extension member is both pivotally and slideably movable relative the tile engagement member (see Fig. 8).
- Claims 4 and 11; a friction connection 130.
- Claims 5 and 14; cam surfaces (the surface interacting with the bolt 38).
- Claims 6 and 38; the locking member relative to the tile engagement member is pivotally movable with the extension member (see Fig. 8).
- Claim 10; the scribe member is pivotally connected to the extension member (see Fig. 8).
- Claims 15 and 39; a single monolithic member having a straight scribe edge (see Fig. 1).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 7-9, 12 and 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Garcia et al. (5,701,680) in view of Ashworth (5,012,586).

Garcia et al. discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for actuation portions and a resilient portion. However, Ashworth teaches the use of actuation portions (40, 42, 102 and 110) and a resilient portion 90 for the purpose of quickly locking the device. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have modified the locking member of Garcia et al. by providing the actuation portions and the resilient portion as though by Ashworth in order to a device that quickly locks the tool.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In response to applicant's argument that Garcia's tool does not show the locking member being biased from the unlocking position toward the locking position, a recitation of the intended use of the claimed invention must result in a structural difference between the claimed invention and the prior art in order to patentably distinguish the claimed invention from the prior art. If the prior art structure is capable of performing the intended use, then it meets the claim. The user's hand, which is an external force, is capable of biasing the locking nut from the unlocking position toward the locking position. Also, the independent claims don't disclose any structure or anything that biases the locking member from the unlocking position toward the locking position.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
